The screenshot shows a Gantt chart in Microsoft Excel for a project named "Product Launching Event". The project starts on 1-Jul-00 and ends on 5-Aug-00. The chart is divided into four weeks. Tasks are listed on the left, including "Product Package Design", "Marketing Kit", and "Public Relations Dept". Each task is represented by a bar indicating its duration and dependencies. The chart uses color coding: blue for the start, red for the end, and grey for the task duration.

The screenshot shows the "MyMoneyCoach Budget Calculator Spreadsheet". It includes a form for entering personal information, a list of expenses with checkboxes, and a pie chart titled "Your Monthly Expenses by Budgeting Category". The pie chart shows the distribution of expenses across various categories like Housing, Food, Transportation, etc. Below the pie chart is a bar chart titled "How Your Budget Compares to Suggested Guidelines", which compares the user's budget to recommended percentages for different categories.
